That our American rorests abound in plants which possess the most valuable medicinal virtues is abundantly attested by scores of the most eminent medical writers and teachers. Even the untutored Indians had discovered the useful-ness of many native plants before the advent of the white race. This information, imparted freely to the whites, led the latter to continue investigations until to-day we have a rich assortment of most valuable American medicinal roots.

Dr. Pierce believes that our American forests abound in most valuable medicinal roots for the cure of most obstinate and fatal diseases, if we would properly investigate them and in believed the first conviction, he points with pride the almost marvelous cures effected by his "Goldon Medical Discurse effected by his proven itself to be the cures effected by his "Golden Medical Discovery." which has proven itself to be the most efficient stomach tonic, liver invisorator, heart tonic and regulator, and blood cleanser known to medical science. Dyspersia, or indigestion, torpid liver, functional and even valvular and other affections of the heart yield to its curative action. The reason why it cures these and many other affections, is clearly shown in a little book of extracts from the standard medical works which is mailed free to any address by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., to all sending request for the same. 00

Not less marvelous, in the unparalleled cures it is constantly making of woman's many poculiar affections, weaknesses and distressing derangements, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as is amply attested by thousands of unbolicited testimonials contributed by careful patients who have been supported by the contributed by the contr cributed by cateful patients who have been cured by it of caterrhal nelvic drains, paintul periods, irregularities, procassus and other displacements caused by weakness, ulceration of uterus and kindred affections, often after many other advertised medicines, and physicians had falled.

Both the above mentioned medicines are holly made up from the glyceric extracts of ative medicinal roots. The processes emloyed in their manufacture were original ith Dr. Pierce, and they are carried on by cilied chemists and pharmacists with the d of apparatus and appliances specially signed and built for this purpose. Both edicines are entirely free from alcohol and I other harmful, habit-forming drugs. A ill list of their ingredients is grinted as the bottle-wrapper.

TRAPPED IN HIS TUNNEL.

After digging all yesterday afternoon, all night and most of the day, searchers found the body of Isaac Finkelstein 12 feet below the surface of Ludlow street, New York, late yesterday afternoon, in the tunnel by which he hoped to reach the vaults of a bank and a jewelry store. Finkelstein was found trapped like a rabbit in her warren. He lay under the middle of the s reet, a crushed, miry semblance of a man, his face in the dirt; his hands stretched out before him, pointed toward the unattainable millions in the vaults of the Fourteenth street bank, and the dismonds in the window of Isase Z rinski's jewelry shop next door. His wife and their five children saw the fi-s: stroke of the pick that uncovered his aboes.

Finkelstein was a patron of the East Side New York, moving picture theaters and many a successful bank robbery had he seen flashed briefly on the white sheet by the calciam light. These things may have worked on the imagination of the painter, with five child-ren to support. If they did, he must have thought of them every time he looked out of his garret window, for sehind him, on the dead wall of the bank, flared the legend. "Deposits, $10,000,000," and by craning his neck a little he could see the dismonds of the jeweler blazing in the window of the brilliantly lighted shop. Finkelstein was a good-natured, easy-going house painter. He knew nothing about driving tunne's. He had only the rudest tools—no timber to shore up the roofs and walls of his burrows; no barglars' kit tobore through the concrete and steel walls of the bank vaul ; no adequate idea of the precautions constantly on watch inside those walls against him; no revolver for the ever possible crisis-nothing but his guilty tream. And the dream collapsed! What ingenuity he had was taxed to the attermost to keep his secret from his wife. It might be better now if he had told her. That is all there is to Fickelstein and his terrifying tunnel. It would be ludicrous if it were not so

ARMY MANEUVERS.

The Business Men's League of Manassas Tuesday adopted a resolution to appoint s committee to confer with war department officers for the purpose of inducing them to select the battlefield of Ball Run upon which to make their army maneuvers this year. In view of the fact that these memorable fields afford an ideal situation and favorable conditions for the porpose, having already been provided with deep wells of good water for the maneuvers held thereon in 1905, the committee looks for a favorable consideration of the proposition. Those who constitute the proposition. Those who constitute incommittee are George C. Rounds, D. J. Arrington, F. C. Rorabaugh, Captain James Herrell, G. Raymond Ratcliffe, Captain W. H. Brown, W. M. DIED FROM HIS INJURIES. Richard J. Marshall, 39 years old, a real estate operator and known throughout a large section of the country as one of the most daring of horsemen, died at Garfield Hospital in Washington yesterday afternoon from injuries received a month ago while riding a green hunter over the jumps in Potomac park. His death was caused by contusion of the tissues of the brain. Since the accident, which occurred on the afternoon of December 7, "Dick" Marshall, as he was popularly known among lovers of huntng and jumping horses, had been lying in a detirious condition, first at his home and then at the hospital, whither he was taken for a surgical operation. The end came yesterday at 12:30 o'clock and had been expected by the physicians and surgeous attending him since the operation was performed on Decem-

ORUCIFIED HERSELF.

A dispatch from Rome says a girl possessed of a religious mania in Turin cruc fied herself on a bed. Her employer discovered that, after placing a crown of thorns on her head and inflicting a severe wound on her chest, she nailed her feet and her left hand to the bed boards, and calmly spent the night suffering tortures, as did Ohrist. When discovered the sufferer was unconscious from pain and loss of blocd, and was taken to a hospital in a dying condition. She admitted that out of love for Jesus Ohrist she had voluntarily crucified herself. Her reason for this, she said, was that she wished to share Ohrist's sufferings. The doctors declare that the girl is hysterical and therefore insensible to pain, but the common people regard the case as miraculous.
